RE: Green Building Update and Clarification for 2011 Consolidated Funding Cycle

The current Consolidated Funding Cycle (CFC) Green Building worksheet section for Enterprise Green Communities refers to Exhibit B, which no longer exists in the Green Communities Criteria. The Exhibit B form is an outdated name used for what Enterprise Green Communities now calls the “Intended Methods” form. You may use the Intended Methods worksheet of the 2011 Certification Workbook in place of your exhibit B for, found here:

http://www.greencommunitiesonline.org/tools/certification/certification_step_one.asp. Specific questions can be directed to Amanda Saul or Dave Eply at 503-553-5646.

Information on the Enterprise Green Communities, Earth Advantage and LEED programs that is listed in the CFC application is provided as a courtesy for the applicant. The department takes no responsibility for the accuracy of the program material as requirements or criteria may have been updated by any of the program providers. Sponsors should confirm the provider’s expectations before committing to a specific program.
